Entries:

Foreign athletes should include their name, year of birth, club, nationality, and FIS code in the email zgloszenia.biegi@gmail.com.

Participation requires an active PZN license, medical clearance, and an active FIS code (cat. senior/ka, junior/ka, junior/ka Mł.)

Rules for participation of foreign players

Foreign nationals can participate in the FIS competitions. Fee: €15 per athlete per day (FIS categories); €10 (cat. Młodzik, Młodziczka, Dziewczynka and Chłopiec). Foreign athletes will appear in results and receive medals and diplomas if in top positions but are excluded from individual and club general classifications.

Starting order

FIS categorier (Seniors, Juniors, and Younger Juniors) start based on the FIS points list. Non-listed athletes will be drawn. Other categories by PP Ranking or draw for unranked athletes.

Awards and decoration ceremony

Diplomas and medals for top 3 athletes per competition in FIS categories, and top 6 in younger categories (Młodzik/Młodziczka/Chłopiec/Dziewczynka). Awards must be collected on the podium only by competitor. Delegated persons may collect afterward only in exceptional cases.

Other information

- Changing rooms allocated by clubs and PZN regions – by CO
- Fee for lost bibs - 100 PLN
- Mandatory team captains' meeting attendance – one club represented by one person (trainer or other official person from that club) absence results in exclusion from the draw. Club can be represented by other person only when this fact will be reported earlier on official paper from PZN website.
- Missing athletes must be reported at least 1 hour before the start; unreported absences on the start incur a 50 PLN fine for the club for each athlete. Reported on official paper in Race Office.
- Only athletes with correctly wearing bibs may enter the course.
- Warm drink available for athletes during competitions.
- The organizer is not responsible for lost items or accidents.
- CO can change the event program due to weather or participant numbers
- Parking at clubs expense.
